

Check out these resources for at-home formation activities to use with your children – and for yourself!

- <https://www.dofaithathome.org>

Our faith is not just something we “do” on Sundays, but how we live every day! The devotions on this site are written for the practice of daily reading, reflection, and response to Scripture for various age groups. Prepared by Forward Movement and Forma, the network of Christian Formation of the Episcopal Church.

- <https://buildfaith.org>

Regularly updated, short, family-friendly articles, webinars, and resources for at-home worship. A ministry of Virginia Theological Seminary – to equip, teach, and form disciples of all ages!

- <https://www.facebook.com/episcopaltuckedin>

Each Monday, Wednesday and occasional Fridays join in for videos of Bible and other stories and short bedtime prayers read by real moms, dads, neighbors, and friends. If you'd like to be a reader, or for information, email Tucked.in.Linnae@gmail.com

- <http://littlebookbigstory.com>

A comprehensive book blog that connects literature for children and youth to lessons found in Scripture.

<https://rowsofsharon.com>

Resources and recommendations curated by lifelong Episcopalian and Christian educator, Sharon Ely Pearson.

- <https://sermons4kids.com>
- <https://ministry-to-children.com>

Weekly Bible lessons, coloring pages, and activities